re: Consulting Draft for Consultation and Notification
Requirements

RD/10/01/12 (28)
MOVED by Director Hiebert, SECONDED by Alternate Director Houley, that the following comments regarding the Consultation Draft for the Consultation and Notification Requirements be forwarded to Mr. Paul Jeakins, Deputy Commissioner, Regulatory Affairs and Stewardship Division, Oil and Gas Commission:

- recognize landowners' rights and that landowners be dealt with respectfully;
- ensure negotiations are fair and equitable;
- recognize that the landowner owns more than six inches of soil, they own the soil below the surface but not the mineral rights
- recognize overlapping tenures;
- more authority over roads (as transportation routes to a tenure);
- make reports on notification and consultation more transparent by recording what was done; what the responses were and make those reports available to the public (or at least all affected landowners) similar to the Environmental Assessment processes or local government processes;
- ensure the landowner of the property where the activity is to take place has a copy of what the company reports the notification or consultation comprised of;
- response timelines for referrals needs to be longer (i.e., 20 working days (28 calendar days));
- take school zones into consideration when planning activities (i.e. fracing during the summer break rather than the school term) or not include school zones in the EPZ;
- establish a point when a multi-pad site requires a higher degree of consultation; i.e., after a certain level of surface development is required (450 square metres of structures and buildings);
- the number of pads, size of overall site and timeframe that industry will be on site must be included in the notification or consultation;
- using multi-pads creates a lesser footprint and addressing elements of dust, noise, and traffic is good but causes concern about industrial activity 24/7 for up to twelve months a year;
- ensure building stakeholders that are not Regional District property are notified or consulted (i.e., community halls, gymkhanas, water facilities, recharge areas, arenas);

DELEGATION

25) D-1
Enbridge Northern
Gateway Pipelines
Kevin Brown,
Communications
Manager
- Winter 2010 Power
Point Presentation

The Chair welcomed Kevin Brown, Communications Manager, Enbridge Northern Gateway Pipelines to the meeting. He provided an update on the company's proposal to build the world's longest (1,170 km) liquids twin pipeline system to export approximately 525,000 barrels of petroleum per day through a new marine terminal in Kitimat, B.C. and import approximately 193,000 barrels per day of condensate. The project is expected to create approximately 4,000 jobs during the three years of construction and provide 200 permanent jobs on the marine side of the project. The project plans and pipeline routing are much the same as when the presentation was made to the Peace River Regional District one year ago.

Enbridge has been working with forty local governments along the corridor and made numerous presentations in communities, as well as at the North Central Local Government Association and the Union of BC Municipalities. Following the regulatory application which is expected to be filed in March, and subject approval, there will be lots of opportunity for these associations to participate in the three year joint review panel process, which will be led by Canada's National Energy Board and the Canadian Environmental Assessment Agency.

The complete Winter 2010 power point presentation (D-1) is posted in the January 28th meeting agenda on the Peace River Regional District's website at:

<http://www.peacerriverrd.bc.ca/board/agendas/2010/2010-02-8891865424/AGENDA.html>

A question and answer period ensued with the following points discussed:

- Enbridge has plans for five pipeline 101 workshops in the area which are specific to the Northern Gateway Pipeline Project - the appetite for learning is high;
- Mr. Brown stated he would be pleased to become involved in the Energy Conference which is scheduled to take place in Fort St. John on October 13th and 14th, 2010;
- further details requested in incident reporting, particularly in reference to the actual number of barrels spilled;
- strong pacific rim demand for product and diversity of customers giving producers more leverage regarding price and expansion;
- it is time for public debate that would allow producers to ship offshore;
- this project is a move toward green energy;
- specifics of the 200 permanent jobs e.g. 14 people to man the tugs; around 40 to run the marine facility; 12-14 pipeline technicians, 3 or 4 at key points along the pipeline to do routine checks on valves etc.;
- how the joint review panel was set up;
- at this point, Mr. Brown was not aware of any above ground or above stream crossings;
- details of the planned three rounds of interaction process, after which (year three) the joint review panel will submit its recommendations to the federal government.
