

Mike Bernier, Director representing the City of Dawson Creek

Mike Bernier is currently the Mayor of the City of Dawson Creek. He was born in North Vancouver but his work career took him to Terrace. He started his post-secondary life as a professional musician but moved into the construction field building houses in Vancouver. He moved to Dawson Creek with his wife, Valerie and became an A Gas fitter. He has worked for Pacific Northern Gas (PNG) since 1993 and became manager of the south Peace in 2000. He was elected to the City of Dawson Creek Council in 2005, then as Mayor in 2008. Mike and his wife have five children, three of whom have now moved on to continue their post-secondary lives.
