Planner 1

Full-Time Permanent or Full-Time Temporary (Up To 12-Month Term) Position

Position Overview

Reporting to the General Manager of Development Services or designate, the Planner 1 will assist in a number of ongoing, long-range planning projects such as official community plans and zoning bylaws. They will also assist in the processing of current planning files such as, subdivision referrals and Agricultural Land Reserve applications. This is an excellent opportunity to work in a northern resource region and gain experience working with multiple jurisdictions and authorities.

Qualifications

The ideal candidate will be a current student or recent graduate of a Planning program in Canada and will have a solid understanding of Local Government planning in British Columbia. Proven skills in research and data analysis, experience in a fast-paced environment and strong written communication skills are required.

Additional Information

There is one position available consisting of either a full-time permanent position or full-time temporary position for up to a 12-month term. This position will be located at the Dawson Creek PRRD office. Candidates must indicate whether they are seeking a permanent or temporary position upon application.

The hours of work are Monday to Friday, from 8:30 am – 4:30 pm, with one hour for lunch.

The after-probation wage rate for this position is $31.82/hr. Term positions are eligible for 14% in lieu of benefits. The applicant will be asked to provide a Class 5, BC Driver's License abstract.

We thank all candidates for their interest, however, only those selected for interviews will be contacted.
